

Suzanne F. Stevens Bio:

Suzanne F. Stevens is the unstoppable force behind YouMeWe Social Impact Group Inc. Since 2000, Suzanne has been invigorating audiences on five continents, catalyzing a ripple effect in conscious leadership practices, value-aligned business development, and social impact strategies.

She's not just a speaker; she's a globetrotter who's lived and traveled to over 60 countries, empowering entrepreneurs, seeking adventure, and amplifying Conscious Leaders' voices.

In her mid-40s, Suzanne and her husband sold their everything they owned and self-funded a two-year journey backpacking through Africa to amplify the voices of Conscious Leaders in 19 countries for the YouMeWe Amplified Podcast. Now, she has conversations with Conscious Leaders internationally who are transforming where we live and work with sustainable social solutions.

Suzanne, a Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), commands the stage with a captivating blend of passion, wisdom, and charisma. Her evolution from the 'me' economy to a 'WE' culture is brought to life through relatable anecdotes, profound insights, and authentic breakthroughs.

Her captivating presentations usher in an era of interconnectedness, communal well-being, and collective growth, igniting an unstoppable surge of inspiration in the heads and hearts of her clients and leaving the audience forever transformed.

Her content is incredibly relevant, timely, interactive, and research based. She's the author of the book "Make your contribution Count, for you, me, we," a conscious leadership coach, a community builder, and a multi-award-winning Impactpreneur!

Suzanne's mission is clear: to grow conscious leaders, their organizations, and social impact—sustainably! Suzanne has worked with a diverse range of clients across industries such as finance, media, manufacturing, engineering, franchising, non-profits, facility and event management, and social enterprises.

Her unwavering commitment extends to the YouMeWe Foundation, where she empowers underserved women through scholarships for post-graduate education in Africa, which she commits a portion of her product sales toward.

Suzanne's is dedicated to grow and amplify conscious leaders and their social impact to foster a ripple effect in the workplace and the world by empowering you, me, and we.

